

ROMI

selects

CÔTE DES CAILLOUX MATHIEU

Jacques Mathieu, originally from the French Alps, makes concentrated, elegant and serious wines at the Coturri compound in Glen Ellen. He planted a vineyard surrounding his home in Sonoma of mixed Rhone varietals in 1996 on volcanic bedrock. For the Mathieu cuvée, he sources fruit from Mendocino.

VINTAGE: 2018

REGION: Mendocino, CA

GRAPES: Carignan

YEASTS: Wild

AGED IN: Old oak

CLARIFICATION/FILTRATION: Unfiltered/
Unfined

ADDED SO2: None

FARMING: Organic

ALCOHOL CONTENT: 13.6%

SOIL: Loam

TOTAL PRODUCTION: 100 cases

VOLUME: 750mL

