

ROMI selects

DOMAINE BEAUTHOREY BOGUS

Writer and winemaker Christophe Beau started his winery in 1985 with organic practices and quickly pivoted to biodynamics. Beau has been dedicated to reintroducing the flora and fauna into his vineyards, allowing the cultivated areas to be integrated with the herds of roaming sheep. He recently started an experimental project that combines different modes of vine cultivation from the Etruscan and Greek tradition.

VINTAGE: 2019

REGION: Languedoc, France

APPELLATION: Pic Sainte Loup

GRAPES: 90% Cinsault, 10% Muscat de
Hambourg

YEASTS: Natural

MACERATION: Partial press, partial whole cluster, 4-6 days

CLARIFICATION/FILTRATION: Unfiltered/
Unfined

FARMING: Biodynamic

ALCOHOL CONTENT: 11%

SOIL: Clay, limestone

VOLUME: 750mL

